

JOB TITLE: Operator, Production (Fabric)

DATE: January 2016

FLSA STATUS: Non-Exempt

REPORTS TO: Fabric Crew Chief

Summary:

With little supervision, sets up, operates and performs complex maintenance on a variety of specialized production and non-production equipment. May sort, load, unload, check and inspect. Instructs and directs one or more Assistants. Keep necessary records, reports rejects and failure patterns. Works to sketches, diagrams, drawings, written and verbal instructions. Acts to maintain the integrity of processes and final product quality.

ESSENTIAL JOB FUNCTIONS:

- The ability to understand written and verbal instructions.
- The ability to read and interpret assembly prints and basic blueprints.
- Responds appropriately to system, process, or material problems
- Performs required inventory functions (e.g. inquiries, updates, transactions, certs)
- Follows SOP's & SOC's using correct materials and tools
- Performs required tasks for product changeover and startup
- Previous experience in the operation of high volume manufacturing equipment and the use of common hand tools.
- Set-up machine
- Understands all job hazards, demonstrates safe behaviors
- Performs other duties as assigned

REQUIRED TRAINING:

- Lock-out
- Basic hazardous communication
- PPE
- On the job safety review

PHYSICAL DEMANDS/WORK ENVIRONMENT:

- Continuous standing
- Frequent walking
- Frequent pushing/pulling
- Frequent upper extremity use

JOB TITLE: Operator, Production (Fabric)

Job Titles:

This position includes the following job titles:

- Operator, Fabric Line
- Operator, Coating Line
- Operator, Sheet Extruder
- Operator, Coating Line Windup